Ichimoku strategy

Ichimoku Kinkō Hyō is a Japanese technical analysis that gives clear and lucid view of current trend. When choosing Matrixes 100, 120 and 150 USD you receive alerts based on this almost 100 years old strategy.

Our tools give a possibility to adjust the chart at ease, putting Ichimoku clouds with chosen parameters, colours and merging it with other parameters on the chart. They also look for opportunities based on the rules allowing to build the markets' advantage.

The Donchian Channel

The Donchian channel gives a possibility of profiting from the strategy used by Turtle Traders. They have managed to overthrow the myth that only certain individual can become an effective investor. Extremely different personalities took part in the trial test and made lucrative transactions. One of the best in the group had made 30 mln USD out of given 2 mln USD.

With ExpAlerts, when choosing Matrix 120 or Matrix 150, you will receive signals based on the Donchian strategy. This will allow you to use the same methods as Turtle Traders did.
